Your guitar amplifier is one of your most-prized possessions – so protect it with a custom-fit BUGERA cover. Made of super-tough black nylon, the G20-PC is a “must-have” accessory for your G20.

Protection Against the Elements

The rugged G20-PC helps keep your amp free from dirt and moisture during transit to and from the gig or studio, and protects it from dust when not in use. And if the gig or session runs for more than one night, putting the cover back on will protect it from inadvertent spills or other unintentional mishaps.
